Angela suffered 3 major head injuries and was left with health challenges. After her concussion Angela became a prolific artist and uses art as her tool to communicate.

Angela was invited to be guest speaker at the Brain Injury Association of Canada conference in Toronto. She was awarded an International ad campaign with Mercedes AMG and her short documentary was selected by Cineplex and appear in all 1,600 Canadian theatres.

In 2017, Angela was awarded the Emerging Visual Artist of the year by the Mississauga Arts Council. In 2019 Angela was the recipient of the Community Heritage Award and the Modern Heritage Award for her role in celebrating urban growth and innovation in promoting mental wellness in Mississauga.

A constant inspiration to herself, Angela is committed in helping others who may be experiencing a similar situation. Angela is committed to taking a public role in promoting mental health and awareness through her art.

To view a work of art in closer detail, or in-person, please email us at agm.connect@mississauga.ca and we'd be happy to forward you a photo. To schedule an in-person visit please call us during regular business hours.

The AGM's 2021 Benefit Art Auction is generously sponsored by Kimberly Phinney and Marty's Hub. It is through your kind donations that the AGM is able to continue its work in making art accessible to the community. Thank you!
